

सत्यमेव जयते

Raj Bhavan

Press Note:

New Vigilance Commissioner meets Governor

Vijayawada, February 05: The newly appointed Vigilance Commissioner Smt. Veena Ish, retired IAS officer of Andhra Pradesh cadre, met Andhra Pradesh Governor Sri Biswa Bhusan Harichandan, on a courtesy visit at Raj Bhavan on Wednesday. She briefed the Governor that she recently assumed charge as AP Vigilance Commissioner. State government issued orders appointing Smt. Veena Ish, as AP Vigilance Commissioner for a period of two years, after her retirement as Special Secretary in the Department of Land Resources, Government of India.

Governor advised the Vigilance Commissioner to strengthen the functioning of the Vigilance commission and to take steps keeping the overall benefit of the people in view and to protect the interests of the common man. Sri Mukesh Kumar Meena, Secretary to Governor and other officials were also present during the meeting.