Press Note:

Indian Constitution is the best Constitution in the world – AP Governor Biswa Bhusan Harichandan

Vijayawada, November 25: On the eve of the 'Constitution Day' observed on November 26 every year, commemorating the adoption of the Indian Constitution by the Constituent Assembly on 26th November, 1949, Andhra Pradesh Governor Sri Biswa Bhusan Harichandan conveyed his wishes to the people. In a message, Governor Sri Harichandan said the 'Constitution Day' also known as 'Samvidhan Diwas' reminds us of our duty to ensure equality before law and equal protection of the law to every citizen of the country as enshrined in the Constitution and unfettered access to the legal system to the poorest of the poor.

Governor Sri Harichandan said the Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties, Freedom of Speech and Expression guaranteed under the Constitution also cast a responsibility on every citizen of the country to uphold the integrity and sovereignty of the country and safeguard the interests of the nation.

Governor Sri Harichandan said it is befitting to remember the contributions made by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the Architect of Indian Constitution and other Founding Fathers, in framing the Indian Constitution and to pay our tributes to them on this occasion, for giving us the best Constitution in the world.
