RAJ BHAVAN

Press Note:

AP Governor bids farewell to senior officers of Raj Bhavan

Vijayawada, August 20: Andhra Pradesh Governor Sri Biswa Bhusan Harichandan bid farewell to Sri Mukesh Kumar Meena, Secretary to Governor and Sri S.V. Madhav Reddy, ADC to Governor, who have been transferred from AP Raj Bhavan, in a farewell function organized in the Durbar Hall of Raj Bhavan on Friday. Governor Sri Harichandan felicitated the officers with a memento and a Certification of Appreciation. Speaking on the occasion, the Governor said it was a moment of mixed feelings to see Sri Mukesh Kumar Meena, Secretary to Governor and Sri S.V. Madhav Reddy, ADC to Governor leaving the establishment of AP Raj Bhavan, but he was happy that they are going to assume more important assignments given to them by the government.

Governor Sri Harichandan said Sri Mukesh Kumar Meena, who took charge as the first officer after establishment of the new Raj Bhavan in Andhra Pradesh made great efforts in getting the Raj Bhavan premises fully operational within a few days from the situation where there was nothing. He said Sri Meena is a dependable and capable officer who managed functioning of the Raj Bhavan so well that he never felt any inconvenience at any point of time in the day to day functioning of the office. Similarly, the Governor said Sri Madhav Reddy, ADC had taken meticulous care of his personal security, official programmes, engagements etc. The Governor said he would always treat the officers and staff members of Raj Bhavan as members of his own family and he would personally intervene if any of them is found in any difficulty at any time.

Responding to the felicitations, Sri Mukesh Kumar Meena, the outgoing Secretary to Governor said it was an honour to work with the Governor and thanked the Governor for his guidance and support. Sri Meena said it was a strenuous task to get the Raj Bhavan premises ready from scratch well within the time for the new Governor's assumption of office and to ensure that all procedures are in place for effective functioning of a new Raj Bhavan. He said several IT initiatives have been introduced in the Andhra Pradesh Raj Bhavan for e-appointment, e-convocation, e-messages etc. through a well designed portal that received appreciation at all-India level.

Sri Mukesh Kumar Meena, Secretary to Governor has been transferred as Secretary (Food Processing) Industries & Commerce dept. and Sri S.V. Madhav Reddy, ADC to Governor has been transferred as Additional S.P. of Vigilance & Enforcement department.

Sri A. Shyam Prasad, Joint Secretary to Governor, Sri B.C. Behera, P.S. to Governor, Major Sahil Mahajan also spoke on the occasion. Officers and staff members of Raj Bhavan have attended the program.
