Governor bids farewell to his ADC

Vijayawada, May 13: Andhra Pradesh Governor Sri Biswabhusan Harichandan bid farewell to his military ADC Major Sahil Mahajan at a programme held in Durbar Hall in Raj Bhavan here on Friday.

Major Sahil Mahajan, who joined in Andhra Pradesh Raj Bhavan as ADC to the Governor in August 2019, was relieved from his duties on May 13, after completion of his tenure. Speaking on the occasion, Governor Sri Harichandan said Major Sahil Mahajan was a meticulous officer who took care of not only every aspect of safety and security of the Governor but he went beyond the call of his duty in the discharge of his duties and said that he was thoroughly satisfied his services. The Governor made a special mention of the services of Major Sahil Mahajan during the COVID-19 pandemic, when he used to bring to his notice whenever any officer or staff member of the Raj Bhavan was found positive and ensure that they were given proper attention and treatment.

Governor Sri Harichandan felicitated Major Sahil Mahajan with a shawl and memento and wished him greater success in his career.

Sri R.P. Sisodia, Special Chief Secretary to Governor, Sri B.C. Behera, PS to Governor, Sri Eswara Rao, ADC (police), Sri D. Sanyasi Rao, Deputy Secretary, Sri T.V. Narasimham, Liaison Officer also spoke about the services of Major Sahil Mahajan and wished him success in his future endeavours.

Officers and Staff members of A.P. Raj Bhavan participated in the programme.
